Dear Macdonald! I did my best, but in vain, to persuade Snowell to accept your offer. He remained stiff-necked in declining my request. I think, you must try with Prof. D. S.
Margolish; perhaps he could be gained for the matter. Did Sir Ch. ^{do} something in your interest? I am very anxious to know the present state of the question. After having finished my lectures-work (in German) I wrote some Ebraudlungen on Islamic matters. You will read the one of them "Struggles about the Hadith in early Islamism" in the 4th fascicles of the 2 DMs. Another "Hanbalitic movements in the V-VIII. Sacc. H." is not yet finished. Besides I wrote a Hungarian essay for our Academy on the famous Hungarian orientalist Ure (author of the Bodleian Catalogue). My work in jeil ibes appeared these days (Abhandl. of the Göttinger Geellsch. d. Wissensch., in 4^o); I got very few copies, so that I am sorry to have not spared one for you; but you will see the book in the Glasgow-Library. I do not think that the purpose of this publication (Neoplatonic philosophy) could interest you much. You see, I am again in action. How long? Thousand kind regards to Mrs. Macdonald and yourself from your friend
